

REFINERY29

INFLUENCERS | Nov 13, 2012 5:15 PM

Lulu Frost Creates A Charm-ing Necklace For Your Inner Eloise

By Seija Rankin

We're gaga over Lulu Frost, the so-chic bauble line from R29 It Girl Lisa Salzer, so it's safe to say we never turn down an opportunity to expand our collection of her statement, sparkling gems. Just in time for the holidays, the venerable designer has teamed up with Kelly Florio Kasouf to create a special Lulu Frost collab — and the result has shot straight to the top of our gift list for young-adult adventuresses (and, no shame, ourselves).

Kasouf, author of the adorable Sophie and the City books, just released a follow-up, The Super Adventures of Sophie and the City: Grand Central Escapades, which was the primary inspiration for the brand-new bling.

The adorable (and inspirational for all ages) tome sees little Sophie traveling back to the 1920s, so the limited-edition collection (which also celebrates the book's debut), features flapper-era details like purple and gold resin, as well as a hand-drawn silhouette of the adventurous heroine.

The charm necklace, which comes with three different Grand Central-themed charm suites, will be available at Barneys this week. Scoop up the too-cute-for-words charms (and a copy of the book!), and get ready to play Santa.

Barneys New York, 660 Madison Avenue (at 60th Street); 212-826-8900. Photo: Courtesy of Lulu Frost